COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

Executive Registry

62-5264

July 25, 1962

The Honorable
John J. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Director:

In recent years there have been increasing numbers of incidents involving attempts by foreign governments, or their agents, to influence the conduct of United States foreign policy by techniques outside normal diplomatic channels.

These activities have become the subject of increasing concern to the Members of the Committee on Foreign Relations and to me. For this reason, the Committee has begun a study of the nondiplomatic activities of representatives of foreign governments and their contractors and agents in an effort to obtain a reasonably accurate picture of the nature and extent of their activity.

As the study progresses, the Committee hopes to have both the cooperation and advice of the Central Intelligence Agency.
